STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On or about August 1, 2012 Plaintiff, JOHKIE LEE, was hired by Defendants and/or their predecessors, as applicable, to work as a waiter for Defendants' restaurant located at 12 East 32nd Street, New York, New York 10016.

19. JOHKIE LEE worked for Defendants until on or about November 23, 2012.

20. During the employment of Plaintiff, JOHKIE LEE, by Defendants, he worked over forty (40) hours per week. During JOHKIE LEE's employment by Defendants, he often worked over ten (10) hours per day.

21. Specifically, JOHKIE LEE generally worked 5 days a week. Plaintiff, JOHKIE LEE, worked from 11:30 am to 11:00 pm for 3 days a week and from 5:00 pm to 12:00 am for 2 days a week. On the 3 days Plaintiff worked full time, Plaintiff would take a break from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm. However, such break time was uncompensated and Plaintiff was required to remain on call at the restaurant to do side-jobs such as cleaning. JOHKIE LEE received his compensation on a salary basis, at a rate of $ 30 per day.

22. During Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff suffered from discriminatory behavior and conduct from Defendants due to his sexual orientation. During Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE's training period, Defendant JOAN [Last Name Unknown] asked Plaintiff if he was gay. Although he was embarrassed by such improper question in the work place, Plaintiff Johkie Lee replied that he was gay. Thereafter, Defendant JOAN [Last Name Unknown] regularly made sexual remarks to Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE. When Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE inserted the receipts in the receipt box, JOAN [Last Name Unknown] said "Don't poke it too hard. Do it slowly. Don't hurt it. Sometimes you have to kiss it too." On another occasion when Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE was inserting the receipt into the receipt box, JOAN [Last Name Unknown] said "You have to be careful which hole you stick it in. Make sure you stick it in the right hole." Such remarks humiliated Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE and caused severe emotional distress.

23. Defendants directly discriminated against Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE by subjecting him to unequal pay due to his sexual orientation. Waiters who reached seniority by working at the restaurant for two or more months received 100 points in the tip pool. However, Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE only received 75 points. When Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE asked JOAN [Last Name Unknown] if he could get a raise in his points after being hired by Defendants for three months, JOAN [Last Name Unknown] simply refused to give Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE a raise. Instead, JOAN [Last Name Unknown] would humiliate Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE by asking him if he has a lot of sex.

24. Plaintiff JOHKIE LEE had no avenue to complain about Defendant JOAN [Last Name Unknown]'s discriminatory behavior. When employees complained about JOAN [Last Name Unknown] to Defendant RYOON SEOCK CHOI, he would just tell employees to resolve it with JOAN [Last Name Unknown] directly.

25. As a result of Defendants' failure to discipline JOAN [Last Name Unknown]'s discriminatory behavior and actions directed towards Plaintiff, Defendants fostered a work environment within HANGAWI that condoned such offensive and inappropriate behavior and created a workplace where homosexuals were treated with less respect or dignity than their heterosexual counterparts.

26. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer severe emotional distress. Plaintiff has visited and been diagnosed by a medical professional for tension and stress caused by the Defendants' discriminatory actions.

27. Defendants also discriminated against Plaintiff by failing to equally and fairly compensate Plaintiff for the work performed by him, as compared to the heterosexual employees of Defendants who performed the same or similar job functions. Despite performing the same job functions to his heterosexual counterparts at HANGAWI and having the same or similar job titles, Defendants repeatedly and systematically compensated Plaintiff less than his heterosexual co-workers. This inequality in compensation between Plaintiff and the heterosexual employees of HANGAWI constitutes discrimination against Plaintiff on the basis of his sexual orientation by Defendants.

28. In or about November 2010, Plaintiff, PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN, was hired by Defendants and/or their predecessors, as applicable, to work as a waitress for Defendants' restaurant located at 12 East 32nd Street, New York, New York 10016.

29. PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN worked for Defendants until in or about August 2012.

30. During the employment of Plaintiff, PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN, by Defendants, she worked over forty (40) hours per week. During PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN's employment by Defendants, she often worked over ten (10) hours per day.

31. Specifically, PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN generally worked 5 days a week. Plaintiff, PARAMAPORN TEPPAWAN, worked from 11:00 am to 10:30 pm for 3 days a week and from 11:30 am to 11:30 pm for 2 days a week. Plaintiff TEPPAWAN would take a break from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm. However, such break time was uncompensated and Plaintiff was required to remain on call at the restaurant to do side-jobs such as cleaning. Plaintiff TEPPAWAN received her compensation on a salary basis, at a rate of $ 30 per day.

32. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half) or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half) to the Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees.

33. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying either the FLSA minimum wage or the New York State minimum wage to the Plaintiffs.

34. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying the New York State "spread of hours" premium to Plaintiffs.

35. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not providing proper wage statements or wage and hour notices to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees, in violation of the New York Labor Law. In fact, Plaintiffs did not receive any wage statements or wage and hour notices during their period of employment with Defendants.

36. Defendants took an improper tip credit with respect to Plaintiffs and all other tipped employees of the Defendants given Defendants' failure to: (i) provide proper notice to employees of their tipped credit minimum wage rate and the proper overtime rate thereon, (ii) maintain records of tips earned by employees, (iii) maintain a proper tip pool because management participated in the tip pool and (iv) provide proper wage statements to employees showing deductions, as required under New York State law. Defendant JOAN [Last Name Unknown] retained approximately 17% of tips generated by tipped employees although she did not service customers.

37. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of discriminating against employees who were homosexuals by subjecting them to unequal pay policy and hostile work environment.

38. Plaintiffs retained Lee Litigation Group, PLLC to represent them and other employees similarly situated in this litigation and have agreed to pay the firm a reasonable fee for its services.
